

VERMILION CATHOLIC
a legacy of Mount Carmel

Parents of VC,

Oct 2, 2024

Here's one of those follow-up emails I promised. I'd like to call your attention to a great resource provided by the diocese for parents: Franciscan at Home.

It's no cost to you and features lots of high quality lessons for growing in the faith and in developing the skills to teach others. Some of the courses also allow you to ask for a mentor who helps you along the way. I especially recommend the "Forming Faith at Home" Track. You just follow the link above, scroll down to find this:

The screenshot shows two main sections: 'Learning Tracks' and 'Register Online'. Under 'Learning Tracks', there is a list of tracks with 'Forming Faith at Home Track' circled in red. Under 'Register Online', there are two blue buttons. The top button says 'View all institutions within this diocese with an active subscription.' The bottom button, which is circled in red, features a person icon and the text: 'My parish or school is already registered, and I would like to set up my individual free account under that institution'.

Click the blue button on the right. It will ask you to create an account and then select your diocese (Diocese of Lafayette, Louisiana). Then you select your institution. Vermilion Catholic is all the way at the bottom. Once you're registered, you can go to your dashboard and select the track to work through at your own pace.

A little lagniappe: Here's a fascinating conversation about scripture with Dr. Scott Hahn, whose works I highly recommend: Video format & Podcast format

Faithfully yours,
